Chaperone Requirements

As you may or may not know, student supervision is primarily the responsibility of the individual directors or their designees (chaperones) throughout the three days of the festival. The Concert Committee (coordinators and ensemble managers) is involved in making this an outstanding experience for your students. We are once again divided between two locations for rehearsals and activities. Therefore, it is vital that we have assistance throughout this event especially during “unstructured” times. Those are:

~ Meal times (breakfast, lunch and dinner) and travel between the World Trade Center and the hotels

~ Evening activity on Friday

When you come to register the students on March 1 you will be asked to sign up for one chaperone duty.

Chaperone responsibilities are minimal. Please be aware that as a chaperone you should be accessible throughout the entire event. This includes Friday evening and Saturday morning at Symphony Hall prior until the concert.

You are asked to make sure students are:

- 1) In assigned areas*
- 2) Wearing their identification badges*
- 3) Are not doing anything socially unacceptable*

Any student presenting a problem should be brought to an ensemble manager or concert coordinator, who will in turn contact the student’s festival chaperone.

Once again, we thank you for your support.
